- 7. Privacy is the supreme concept of this Trust. The Trust is not subject to third-party review. The Board is charged with maintaining the privacy of this Trust and are under no legal requirement to disclose any portion thereof. It shall remain forever immune from subpoena.

RECLARATION OF THE BOARD

The Board hereby gives notice to clarify:

8. This Trust is established on the Free Dry Soil of Earth within the private jurisdiction of the Society, and therefore holds no other obligation or allegiance to any other jurisdiction.
9. The Board may operate the affairs of this Trust in any jurisdiction or venue of any Nation State or foreign country it requires, and does so in its own name or in auxiliary entities howsoever may support the purposes of the Trust.
10. No Grant of Jurisdiction is granted to ANY and ALL real or fictional entities in known or unknown existence. Therefore this Trust is not subject to the Restatement of the Law of Trusts, and grants no jurisdiction in Roman Civil, Equity, Commercial, Statutory, or Admiralty jurisdictions.
11. The covenant of this Trust stands separate too and superior to ANY and ALL presumed jurisdictions.
12. Nothing contained in this Trust is intended to consent to or participate in the “conduct of any trade or business,” “commerce” or any type of business. This Trust exists separate and distinct to Statute Law or Legislative Enactment, and therefore does not attach to or grant authority of jurisdiction thereof.
13. The Board or any authorized agent or representative of the Trust shall have all rights necessary to conduct any lawful activities in fulfilment of purposes of the Trust, and to protect and increase the value of its corpus.
14. No Fidelity Bond(s) are required. The Board shall serve without Fidelity Bonds.
15. The Boards liability shall not in any manner jeopardize the real and personal property of each member of the Board - except for a wilful breach of trust.
16. For any losses that any Board Member or authorised Agent should suffer for any reason through service of the Trust, such Member or Agent shall be reimbursed from the Trust’s corpus to the same extent as would non-interested parties.
17. No Individual or Entity that acts as a licensed or designated Fiduciary Party, agent, or representative, shall be liable for any act or omission whatsoever of any other Fiduciary Party(s), agent, or representative, or of their own, except in cases of purposeful neglect, unlawful acts, or wilful malfeasance in the carrying out of designated duties for the purposes of the Trust.

18. The Board is Responsible for the Debts of the Trust. Every real or fictional entity that contracts or deals with the Board in the name of the Trust or having any debt, claim, or judgment against the Board or Trust shall look only to the funds and property of the Trust for payment or satisfaction thereof.
19. No Fiduciary Party or Agent of the Trust shall ever be personally liable for or on account of any contract, debt, tort, claim, damage, judgment, or decree arising out of actions taken, or preservation of the corpus of the Trust, or the conduct in pursuit of the affairs of the Trust.
20. The Board or any authorized (in writing) representative has full right and authority to open bank accounts, enter into contracts and to sue or be sued.
21. Any party representing the Trust must show written and sealed authorization for such purposes and for such office or order as may be intended or applied.
22. The Members of the Board as well as any agent appointed thereof shall always seek to preserve the rights of the Trust against waiver or any other potential loss.
23. Entanglement of the Trust and/or the Board with liabilities springing from any compelled benefit associated with any unrevealed commercial contract and/or agreement is to be avoided, whenever possible. All such compelled benefits or commercial contracts shall not attach to the Trust.
24. The Trust and Board is established a Covenant of Silence. Said Covenant is between the Members of the Board and the members of our Society who are mutually bound to the covenant of silence.
25. Every member of the Board and Society is required to affirm his or her acceptance of the aforesaid Covenant until his or her death.
26. The Board agrees to set off for liquidated damages by self-assessment (in the nature of Self-Confession of Judgment and Self-Executing Contract), the amount of Ten Million (10,000,000) Pounds of Silver, or equivalent, for each occurrence of a breach.

27. This amount of applied liquidated damages is and shall be transferable to any being whether corporate or a Living Man or Woman in individual capacity, who attempts to forcibly compel the Board member to reveal the private documents or private affairs of the Trust against his or her will in maintaining said Covenant of Silence.
28. Any actual or attempted trespass on the Covenant of Silence shall be immediate cause for issuance of a True Bill accompanied by a Self-executing Power of Attorney and Confession of Judgment to be presented to the trespassing party or parties for payment of liquidated damages.
29. The herein Notice shall serve as the only notice of the self-executing nature of such liquidated damages.
30. This Trust does not recognize, acknowledge, receive, or accept any alleged or purported jurisdiction.
31. This Trust does grants no servitude or other purported rights “in this state” to any other entity as aforesaid to any soil, chattels, land, property, or Rights to Land or property in any form which have been donated, bequeathed, bought, or contracted for, to be, or are currently being held by the Trust.
32. The Board explicitly denies any adhesion or grant of jurisdiction to any other lesser or inferior body for any arbitration or claims, whether commercial, civil, or otherwise.
33. Any attempt to establish jurisdiction in any public commercial administrative tribunal shall be properly abated by the filing under special appearance of a copy of this Notice and whatever appropriate Writ issued by the Tribunal of Petitions and Writs of the Justice.
